

Wildlife in Yellowstone

The wildlife in Yellowstone is very diverse with all different type of mammals, birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians. Some of the most popular and well known animals in Yellowstone are the bison, elk and bears.

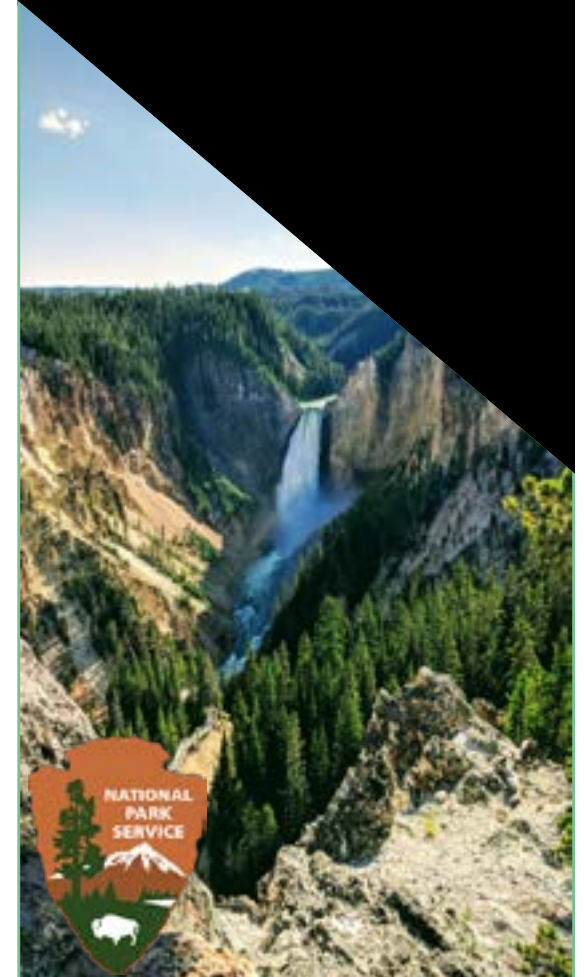

The first ever National Park, Yellowstone.

Home to over 2 million acres of protected land in 3 different states, Yellowstone is well known for its amazing wildlife, beautiful landscape and geothermal features.

Come Visit Yellowstone

The first ever National Park

Yellowstone History

Yellowstone was created as a natural park March 1, 1872 by Ulysses S. Grant. Yellowstone started out under control of the U.S. Department of interior, then the U.S. military for 30 years as it finally became under control of National Park service

Yellowstone's Geothermal Features

Yellowstone is home to a wide variety of geothermal features. These features range from geysers and hot springs, to mudpots and fumaroles. It's estimated that about 10,000 geothermal features are in Yellowstone.

Old Faithful Geyser

Out of all geothermal features in Yellowstone, The most famous by far is the Old Faithful Geyser, located in the southwest of Yellowstone, erupts about every 45 minutes to two hours and erupting as high as

More Information

If someone wants to know anymore about Yellowstone, they can visit the provided link above

